SAM GROSS TEXT RESPONSE TO DAN SCULLY sent 2/15/22 @ 2:25 pm (2 texts sent back to back):

The funds was sent to Manfred. Not me.

Your lawyer can file whatever he likes.

But I am not holding the funds. Manfred is.

So this is a funny statement.

You wired money to manfred per the contract. If you wish to cancel the contract ? You need to have your lawyer email Manfred stating he represents you. And he wants the contract void and funds back.

And then Manfred can refund him.

---

Making such statements?

This is extortion for something that I didn't even received.

If you want to cancel the transaction ? And you want a refund ? All you have to do is have your attorney contact manfred with a formal request so Manfred can issue him a refund.

Manfred is not calling your lawyer. Neither am I.

If you wish to cancel.

Like I stated before.

Have your attorney contact manfred via text or email.

And he will gladly attend to it.
